If my tax dollars are used to fund research, I would like that research to be open access. This is just common sense. Please kill this act; denying the public access to research we have already paid for is infuriating.

thank you,
Erik Haugen