Jon Rudin to the Obama Administration re: intellectual property protection

The ASMP and the Copyright Alliance have informed me of this welcome invitation from the Obama Administration to share my thoughts on my rights as a creator. I am a photographer, sculptor, woodcrafter, inventor, and designer/maker of unique puzzles.

I care deeply about the protection of my intellectual property and that of other creative Americans. I am concerned about the ease with which my ideas and creations can be copied (pirated). In fact, my fear of this possibility has kept me from releasing numerous designs and products that I am sure the public would have benefited from seeing.

My request is that the US government takes all actions - including the creation of both realistic policies and effective enforcement infrastructure - that will enable creative Americans to pursue their art and craft freely.

Thank you for your consideration and efforts,

Jonathan Rudin
