

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20503

May 26, 2015

Statement from OMB Director Shaun Donovan:

Budgetary Impact Analysis for Executive Order Entitled “Termination of Emergency with Respect to the Risk of Nuclear Proliferation Created by the Accumulation of a Large Volume of Weapons-Usable Fissile Material in the Territory of the Russian Federation”

This executive order would terminate the national emergency declared in Executive Order 13617 regarding the national security and foreign policy threat from the risk of nuclear proliferation created by the accumulation of weapons-usable fissile material in the territory of the Russian Federation. Implementing this executive order would have a de minimis impact on costs and revenues to the Federal Government. The benefits of the executive order include furthering the United States’ overall sanctions policy by avoiding the unnecessary use of national emergency authorities. Implementing this executive order would have a de minimis impact on mandatory and discretionary obligations and outlays, as well as on revenues to the Federal Government, in the 5-fiscal year period beginning in fiscal year 2015. Agencies anticipated to be impacted by this Executive Order include the Departments of State, the Treasury, and Energy.
