Statement from OMB Director Shaun Donovan:

Budgetary Impact Analysis for Executive Order Entitled
“The Presidential Innovation Fellows Program”

This executive order establishes a program to attract and select individuals with unique skills to assist the Federal Government in delivering results in some of its most challenging areas. Implementing this executive order is anticipated to have a de minimis impact on costs and no impact on revenues to the Federal Government. The benefits of the executive order include bringing best practices from the private sector to bear on challenges facing the Federal Government. Implementing this executive order is anticipated to have a de minimis impact on mandatory and discretionary obligations and outlays, and no impact on revenues to the Federal Government, in the 5-fiscal year period beginning in fiscal year 2015. The agencies anticipated to be impacted by this executive order are the General Services Administration and the Executive Office of the President.
