

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20503

February 9, 2016

Statement from OMB Director Shaun Donovan:

Budgetary Impact Analysis for Executive Order Entitled “Establishment of the Federal Privacy Council”

This executive order creates a Federal Privacy Council to be the principal interagency forum to improve agency practices related to privacy. Implementing this executive order is anticipated to have a de minimis impact on costs and no impact on revenues to the Federal Government. The benefits of the executive order include better coordination and management of privacy programs across the Executive Branch and reinforcement of the work that agency privacy officials undertake every day to protect privacy. Implementing this executive order is anticipated to have a de minimis impact on mandatory and discretionary obligations and outlays, and no impact on revenues to the Federal Government, in the 5-fiscal year period beginning in fiscal year 2017. The agencies anticipated to be impacted by this executive order are the executive departments and agencies named as members of the council.
