

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20503

December 23, 2016

Statement from OMB Director Shaun Donovan:

Budgetary Impact Analysis for Executive Order Entitled “Providing an Order of Succession within the Department of Labor”

This executive order would establish an order of succession within the Department of Labor. Implementing this executive order is anticipated to have no impact on costs and revenues to the Federal Government. The benefits of the executive order include clarifying position designations that have changed as a result of Departmental reorganizations and relevant legislative enactments. Implementing this executive order is anticipated to have no impact on mandatory and discretionary obligations and outlays, and no impact on revenues to the Federal Government, in the 5-fiscal year period beginning in fiscal year 2017. The agency anticipated to be impacted by this executive order is the Department of Labor.
