

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20503

January 14, 2016

Statement from OMB Director Shaun Donovan:

Budgetary Impact Analysis for Executive Order Entitled “Recognizing Positive Actions by the Government of Sudan and Providing for the Revocation of Certain Sudan-Related Sanctions”

This executive order would provide for the revocation of certain sanctions related to Sudan. Implementing this executive order would have a de minimis impact on costs and revenues to the Federal Government. The benefits of the executive order include furthering the United States’ overall sanctions policy. Implementing this executive order would have a de minimis impact on mandatory and discretionary obligations and outlays, as well as on revenues to the Federal Government, in the 5-fiscal year period beginning in fiscal year 2017. Agencies anticipated to be impacted by this Executive Order include the Departments of State and the Treasury.
