Grant Type: Competitive Grants

Grantee Type: limited to federally recognized tribal governments, including eligible Alaska Native villages and corporations, and authorized intertribal consortia

Grant Uses: The Indian Alcohol and Substance Abuse Program (IASAP) provides funding and technical assistance to plan, implement, or enhance tribal justice strategies to address crime issues related to alcohol and substance abuse. Key objectives of this program include:

- Establishing a multidisciplinary advisory team to plan, implement, and monitor the proposed strategy.
- Identifying, apprehending, and prosecuting individuals who illegally transport, distribute, and use alcohol and controlled substances in tribal communities.
- Preventing and reducing alcohol- and substance abuse-related crimes (with a priority on methamphetamine), traffic fatalities, and injuries.
- Increasing coordination among all levels of tribal government, law enforcement, the tribal criminal justice system, and tribal support services.
- Integrating federal, state, tribal, and local services and culturally appropriate treatment for offenders and their families.
